

What is Factoring?

Factoring is a Powerful and alternate instrument in the financial services market, to cater to the Post sales Working Capital requirement of the Industrial / Trade / Service Sector.

In Short...

Factoring is a financial service whereby receivables are purchased by Factor and credit sales are converted to cash sales.